

Gourmet Safari to New Zealand 9th – 15th February 2024 SAMPLE Itinerary

Day 1 - Friday 9th February

Meet you at the airport in Queenstown early afternoon (Virgin arrives from Sydney 2.30pm/ Air NZ 2.30)

We will do a group transfer to the hotel (approx 3pm), but if you do arrive early, the good news is that the airport is very close to the hotel so grab a taxi.

Check in and while our bags are taken to rooms, we will enjoy a glass of the region's best wine in the Hilton Hotel's famous Pinot Pit, situated right on Lake Wakatipu. We'll enjoy a small snack (you find you're a bit hungry due to time change) then let you settle into rooms.

Meet for dinner in the hotel's restaurant Wakatipu Grill. Drink, snack, dinner

Day 2 - Saturday 10th February

Breakfast at the hotel and then a visit to the Remarkables Markets to explore the stalls of local food and have a chat with locals. We'll then head to Lake Hayes for walk before lunch at the acclaimed Amisfield winery where you'll enjoy 4 great courses with matched wines...all in the private dining room. Free evening to relax. Breakfast, lunch

Day 3 - Sunday 11th February

Breakfast at our hotel and then we travel to lake Wanaka and a private boat tour to Moa Wahu Island which is a wildlife sanctuary where the endangered buff weka birds roam free. There are strict limits on the number of visitors and it's a real joy to climb the track to the secret lake at the top of the island and turn in every direction to find wilderness and silence.

Late lunch at a local restaurant and time to explore the stylish homewares and fashion boutiques of Wanaka.

Free evening for you to enjoy the spa and steam room. Breakfast, morning tea, lunch

Day 4 - Monday 12th February

Breakfast at our hotel before we board the water taxi into Queenstown - one of the most spectacular trips as you travel across the lake surrounded by mountain peaks.

We will explore some inspiring New Zealand art - from high end to "Kiwiana", meet a greenstone carver and one or two local artists before lunch at the Botswana Butchery right with views over the lake.

The afternoon is yours for shopping in some of Queenstown's boutiques, or taking the cable car up the mountain to enjoy the luge (it's fun!), a walk through the stunning Botanical Gardens - the path around the lake with tall pines all around is lovely. Or take a trip on the SS Earnslaw up the lake past the two soaring mountains Walter Peak and Cecil Peak. We'll enjoy dinner this evening in Queenstown. Water taxi back to hotel. Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 5 - Tuesday 13th February

Breakfast in the hotel then we are out to explore. We visit the acclaimed Chantecler Gardens for a guided tour. We then meet up with our dear chef friend James Stapley who is creating a special lunch just for us using the best local produce and with a cooking demonstration. James' restaurant Kika is world class - in fact it's on the World's 50 Best Discovery list. He's pulled some strings and we will be at Two Paddocks Winery - owned by the lovely Sam Neill. This will be a memorable day! Free evening. Breakfast, lunch, tastings

Day 6 - Wednesday 14th February

Breakfast at the hotel and then the morning is yours to walk the beautiful track around the lake, hire a bicycle and ride into Queenstown, catch the water taxi, enjoy a spa treatment. Optional trip to walking track further along Lake Wakatipu to explore some beautiful bays and wild nature.

We'll have an afternoon in pretty Arrowtown with its historic gold diggings. We'll enjoy a light lunch before a movie in the charming little jewel box cinema Dorothy Browns.. then to a dinner with a specially created menu. Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 7 – Thursday 15th February

Breakfast at hotel and check out. Group transfer at 12 noon. Breakfast
